

"My aim is to encourage students to take initiatives of their learning. Being able to think and do in their own ways, students will feel more comfortable and adaptable to new materials, resulting in a deeper understanding and better performance. As long as the students feel confident about their capacities, I believe they won't hesitate to strive for further excellence."

HIEN NGO

Math Teacher

Teaching since 2016

Certificates

Bachelors or Arts in Economics (with Business Administration Minor), Foreign Trade University & Colorado State University (partner).

Qualified to teach

Math all levels.