

"There is a statement by Barack Obama that "What do teachers do? They give students their all – their knowledge, their creativity, their focused attention and their love". All these things are what teachers can do for their students. In my opinion, A good teacher can inspire hope, ignite the imagination, and instill a love of learning. I endeavor to teach students about mathematics through teaching them how to think instead of what to think, encouraging lifelong learning and sharing my enthusiasm for learning."
